Regulation 3. Maintenance of the domestic securities register.

1. Securities are considered to be domestic for invoicing purposes, when IBERCLEAR acts as the issuing Central Securities Depository ("CSD").
2. The fee for maintaining the register is set in annual basis points on the cash value of the equity securities registered in the participant's accounts and on the nominal value of fixed income securities.
3. These equity balances are valued using the closing price of the securities at the end of each day. If it is not possible to determine this closing price, the closing price for the previous available trading day is used or, ultimately, the nominal value of the security.
4. When tranches are determined for the maintenance fees, these are applied cumulatively, that is: the balance in the first tranche is subject to the fee for that tranche; the balance in the second tranche is subject to the fee for that tranche; and so on.
5. The registration fee is calculated by summing the balances for all the accounts with the participant's BIC code and applying these to the fee tranches. This involves calculating the average monthly balance for all the participant's accounts, using the balance at the close of each day multiplied by the number of calendar days on which the balance did not change, divided by the total number of days in the current month. This calculation is performed by asset type as defined in the fees, using the result of applying the tranches to this average monthly balance for the participant to calculate the average monthly fee in annual basis points. This average fee is then applied to the balances of each of the participant's accounts. The total for the participant will be the sum of applying the average fee to the average balances of each account for each type of asset.
6. The exchange rate for the last business day of the month, as published on the European Central Bank website, will be used for invoicing issues denominated in currencies other than the euro.
7. Where a participant owns more than 50% of the shares of one or more other participants or where a participant is associated with¹ and maintains significant control over one or more other participants, the participant shall be entitled to request the application of the family concept.

In its application, the fees for maintaining the domestic securities register shall be calculated by aggregating the balances of these entities, applying the average fee resulting from such aggregation to each of them.

The parent company shall apply to Iberclear for the application of the “family concept” for itself and for the companies in which it has an interest, submitting a certificate stating the exact shareholding it holds in each of these companies or justifying significant control, for example, through the participation of its directors on the Board of Directors. The parent company is obliged to update this certification whenever there is a change in the shareholding or in the control exercised over the company in which it has an interest, such as a change in the composition of the Board of Directors.

If the certification confirms compliance with the participation requirement set out above, and is submitted within the first 20 days of the month, the discount will be applied from the first day of the month following the month in which the communication was made. If the certificate is submitted on or after the 21st day of the month, the discount shall be applied from the first day of the month following the month in which the notification was made.
